Individual Commitment to Service

Purpose

Service takes shape in many different ways—through volunteering, activism, and advocacy. This award recognizes the enormous contribution made by an individual in the past year.

Eligibility

This nomination is for an individual who demonstrates excellent service to the University or to the community.

Suggested Writing Topics*

In writing a nomination for Commitment to Service award, you may write about, but are not limited to, the topics listed below:

- Date of the act(s) of service (if available).
- Purpose of the act(s) of service.
- Describe the planning, execution, and outcome of the service provided.
- How did the act(s) of service better or educate those that participated?
- Who and how many people benefitted from the act(s) of service?
- Reason for nomination.
- What goals were set before the act(s) of service, and how have they been achieved?

*Remember that all of the suggested writing topics do not need to be answered. The suggested writing topics are here to help you write a strong nomination.